

L I V I N G
L I T E R A T U R E

2017 Holiday season

Jean Shepherd's A Christmas Story

Living Literature presents a 40 minute readers theater version of Jean Shepherd's "Duel in the snow, or Red Rider nails the Cleveland Street Kid", from which the 1983 classic movie, A Christmas Story was created.

Sunday, December 3 @ 2 pm

Pawtucket Public Library
13 Summer St. Pawtucket, RI

Monday, December 4 @6:30 pm

Tiverton Town Public Library
34 Roosevelt, Tiverton, RI

Wednesday, December 6 @6:30 pm

Brownell Library,
Home of the Little Compton Free Library
44 Commons, Little Compton, RI

"The Greatest Gift" by Phillip Van Dorn Stern
& how it became the film, It's a Wonderful Life

This half hour readers theatre presentation shares the charming story of this 1943 self published, limited edition, Christmas card, that eventually found its way to film Director, Frank Capra, to become the holiday classic, "It's A Wonderful Life."

Saturday, November 25 @2 pm

Maury Loontjens Memorial Library
35 Kingstown Rd., Narragansett RI

Tuesday, December 12 @7 pm

Rogers Free Library
525 Hope Street, Bristol, RI

These Programs are FREE & Open to the Public
& made possible by the Friends of the Libraries

www.livingliterature.org / www.facebook.com/livingliterature